FREE TRADE DYING OUT.

MR. GLADSTONE MOURNFULLY ADMITS THE FACT.

THE GREAT BRITISH STATESMAN MAKES AN IN-TERESTING ADDRESS AT THE COEDEN CLUB

-WISTFUL EYES ON AMERICA STILL London, May 12 .- Mr. Gladstone spoke at the Cobden Club to-day. He said that Free-Traders must recognize with great disappointment how much ground had been lost by their doctrine within the last twenty-five years. Militarism, which lay like a vampire over Europe, was responsible for much of the mischief, but not for all, because free trade had receded in countries where militarism did not prevail-in the United States and in the British Colonies. Protection was applied now in America, not only to goods, but to persons, as was instanced by the treatment of Chinese. The great Republic had never accepted the doctrines of free trade. At one time there had been a kind of qualified progress toward them; but this being cheeked, opinion became actually retrogressive. Still, the growing strength, activity and en arness of conviction of the Free-Trade American party gave a favorable promise of ultimate triumph at the polls. On looking over the world, the prospects of free trade were certainly not encouraging. This state of opinion had emboldened the champions of protection, long lurking in their holes, to venture out and renew

Regarding bimetallism, Mr. Gladstone said he believed its advocates smelt therein a speedy rise of prices. ("Hear, hear.") It was a move ment in the direction of protection. Since the adoption of free trade the wages of labering men ing out a great social and economic problem for the benefit of the world. He was confident that free trade, though temporarily discredited, was destined to become the universal charter of trade and to obtain the general acceptance of civilized DISSENSION IN THE SERVIAN CABINET. Beigrade, May 12.—Difficulties have arisen between the members of the Cabinet and a Ministerial crisis is probable.

Harmony has been far from prevailing since the abdication of King Milan between the three Regents who officially govern servia under his minor name, and the Ministerial Cabinet which practically administers the country. Personal questions and scrambles have teen a daily occurrence and, though maintaining openly an attitude of atter indifferen in regard to polities, the Dowager Queen Nathalle ha-given her attention to something else than to her duties as the mother of the young King Alexander It is Ekely that the present Ministerial crisis is due more to political questions of an international character than to mere personal quarrels between servin statesmen. Recent incidents must have drawn more closely than before the line between those who are favorable to the maintenance of Russian preponde ance and those who would like to revert to an Austrian moral protectorate. The Rome Governmen has just published a "Green Book" containing the usual batch of diplomatic documents and it is seen that Italy considers Bulgaria as being a sovereign State since it has complied with Article III of the Berlin Treaty by declaring Bulgarian autonomy through a plebiscitum, and duly electing Prince Ferdinand Coburg. Of course this practical recognition of Bulgaria is in beeping with the views of the member of the Triple Alliance, especially of Austria; but a perusal of the Hallan "Green Rook" must have creat some sensation in Servia, which cannot forcet be defeat at Silvattza, in 1884, by the Indigarians. It is the other hand, great excitement has been cause defeat at shivintiza, in lead, by the Bulgarians. Of the other hand, sreat excitement has been cause recently in Servia by the report that both Malomotan and Christians in the provinces of Bosnia and Herze govina are preparing to protest to the Powers agains a continuation of the occupation of linest countries by Austria, which, they say, has not fulfillest there the mission of reorganization which the Berlin Courses had authorized her to perform in the two provinces

William Steinway, the well-known plans nanufacturer, and one of Mayor Grant's recently ppointed Rapid-Transit Commissioners, received letter from ex-Chamberlain Richard Croker The letter is not in Mr. Croker's handwriting, but the signature is unquestionably his. It is written upon the printed letter paper of the Hotel Victoria, at Wiesbaden, and is dated April 29. It is as follows: Dear Mr. Steinway : Let me thank you for the letter papers.

Hoping, sir, that you are enjoying good health chiat I may see you on this side before I return. I main yours respectfully.

RICHARD CROKER main yours respectfully, helmi, which Mr. Croker inclosed, reads thus:

Mr. Croker came here for medical treatment, suffering from pleuritic exsudation and a high degree of ceneiral neurositienta, which latter has resulted from long-continued and excessive mental exertion. At though under proper treatment the pleuritic exsudation has disappeared, the neurositienta absolutely demands that the potient for a long time abstain from every mental exertion and excitement, otherwise complete cure of the same is impossible.

DR. WILHELMI.

DR. WILHELMI, Sanitaetsrath (Sanitary Councillor).

In explanation of the reasons which probably actuated Mr. Croker in using him as the medium of his communication, Mr. Steinway said: "I suppose Mr. Croker sent this letter to me because of the confidence in which he has held me since we first became well acquainted. When he went to Europe I gave him letters of introduction to some of our business agents in the largest cities of Europe. In giving him these letters I selected centlemen who speak English.

"I see that Mr. Croker's letter to me is evidently written by a German, who, however, must written in the strong, firm band that we have that year I met him frequently concerning the National issues. I have always taken great interest in National elections, but never any active part in local issues, nor do I belong to any local political organization. It was when interested in these National issues, both in 1884 and 1888, that I frequently met Mr. Croker, and more often when I became the member of the Democratic National Committee for the State of New-York."

Mr. Steinway alluded to his own lifelong friendship for Mr. Cleveland, dating back to the time both lived in Buffalo, and said that he knew that the Central Turn Verein, Nos. 219 and 221 East Mr. Croker worked with the same earnestness that he himself had done to secure Cleveland's election, adding: "I want to say that I have the utmost confidence and the highest regard for Mr. Croker's personal character and integrity, and I have not the slightest doubt that if it were a physical possibility he would long since have been on his way back to this city."

In reference to the physician who sent the medical certificate, Mr. Steinway said: know Dr. Wilhelmi, and have known him ecting, dressing and bath room for the pupils. In for twelve years or more. I have met him permany years by reputation.
